Dear Ellington Family -

The initial phase of Ellington's Presidential Election 2024 initiative has laid the foundation for students' political freedom to flourish, empowering our educators to teach controversial societal events without fear.

'...if you really look with a positive mindset you can see examples all over this country of amazing things being born and created. Amazing people...of different cultures saying: We want the same thing. We want to feel good about our fellow neighbors. We want to create and move forward...with our children having a true pursuit of happiness...to create a better future...'
